We, the members of the Odaroloc Staff, proudly present the 1962-1963 Odaroloc. We sincerely hope that this book, based on traditions at B.H.S., will be a reminder of your year at Boulder High.

The Odaroloc Staff

Minnie and Jake

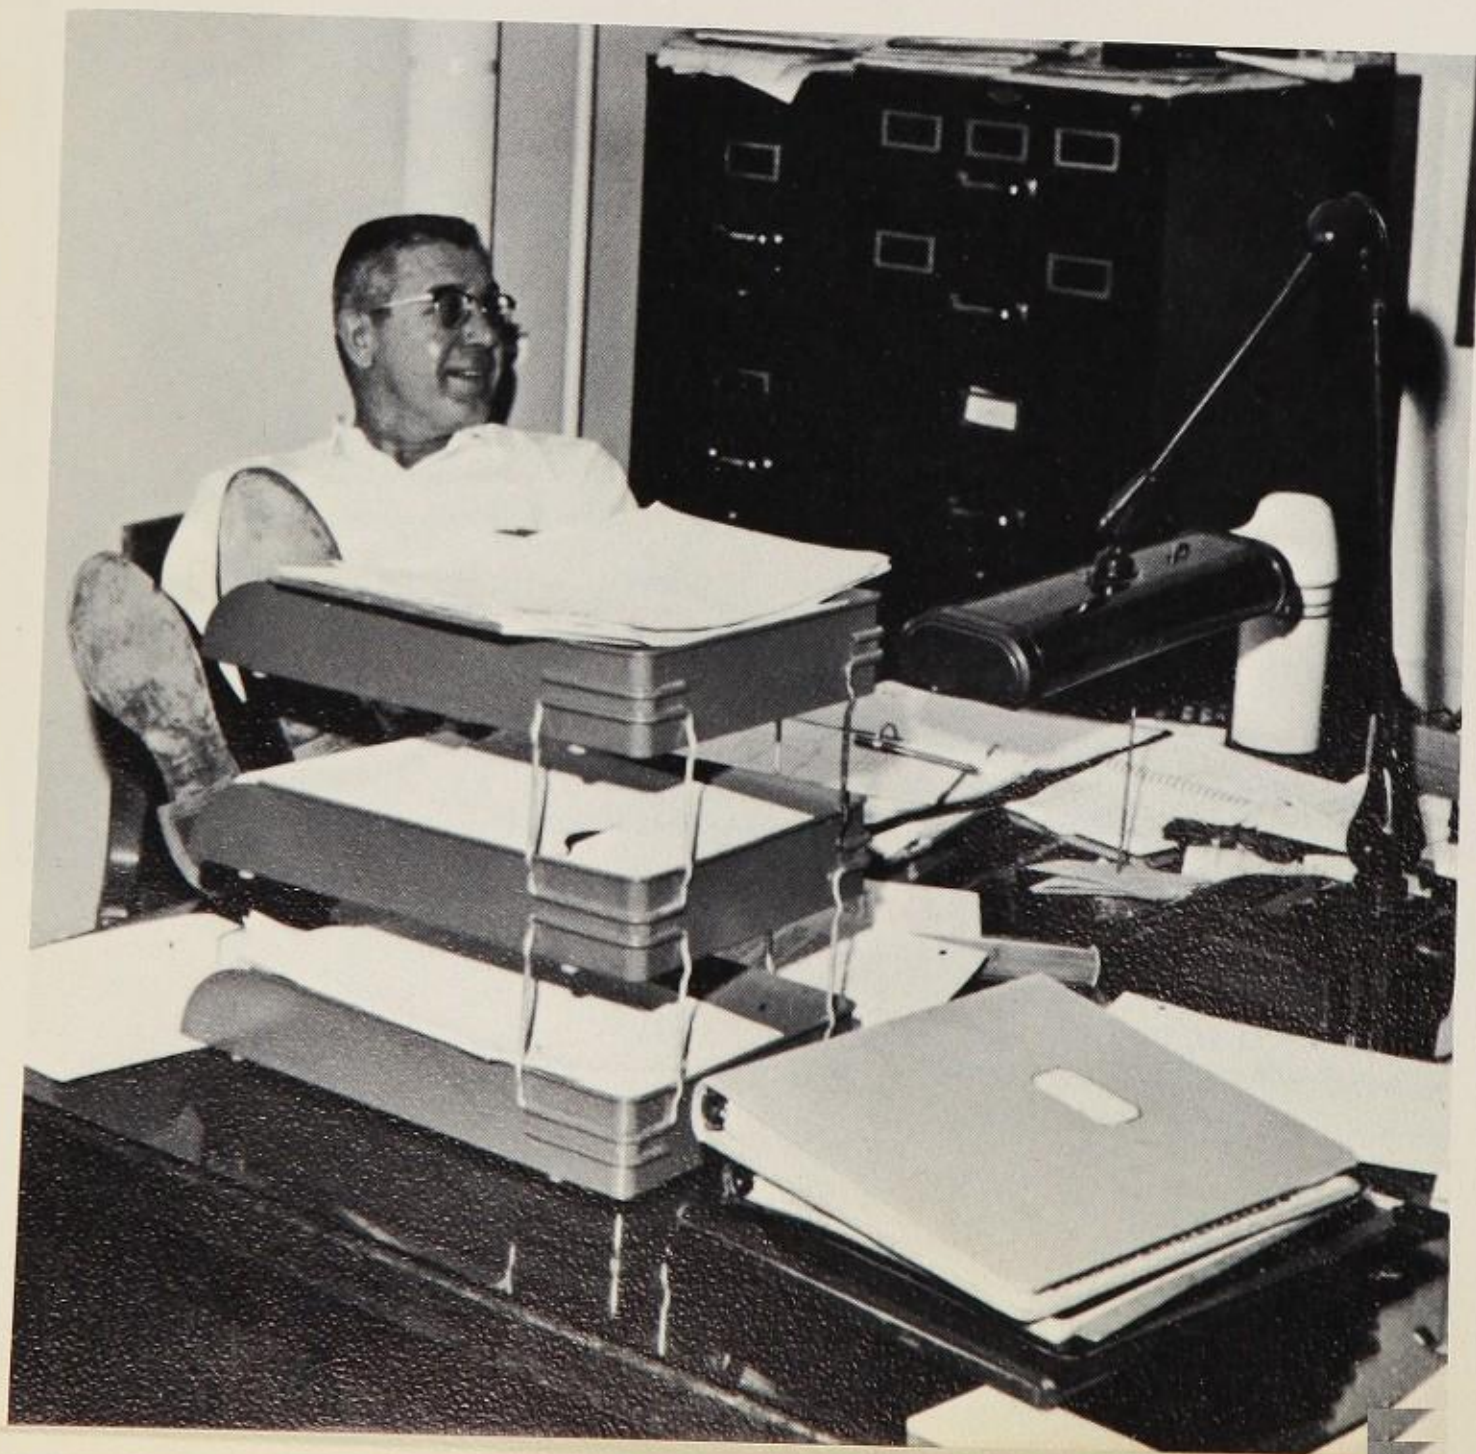

A Tradition at B.H.S.

Barb has been loads of fun knowing you this year! Good of luck always!
and never forget your Spanish
Esther

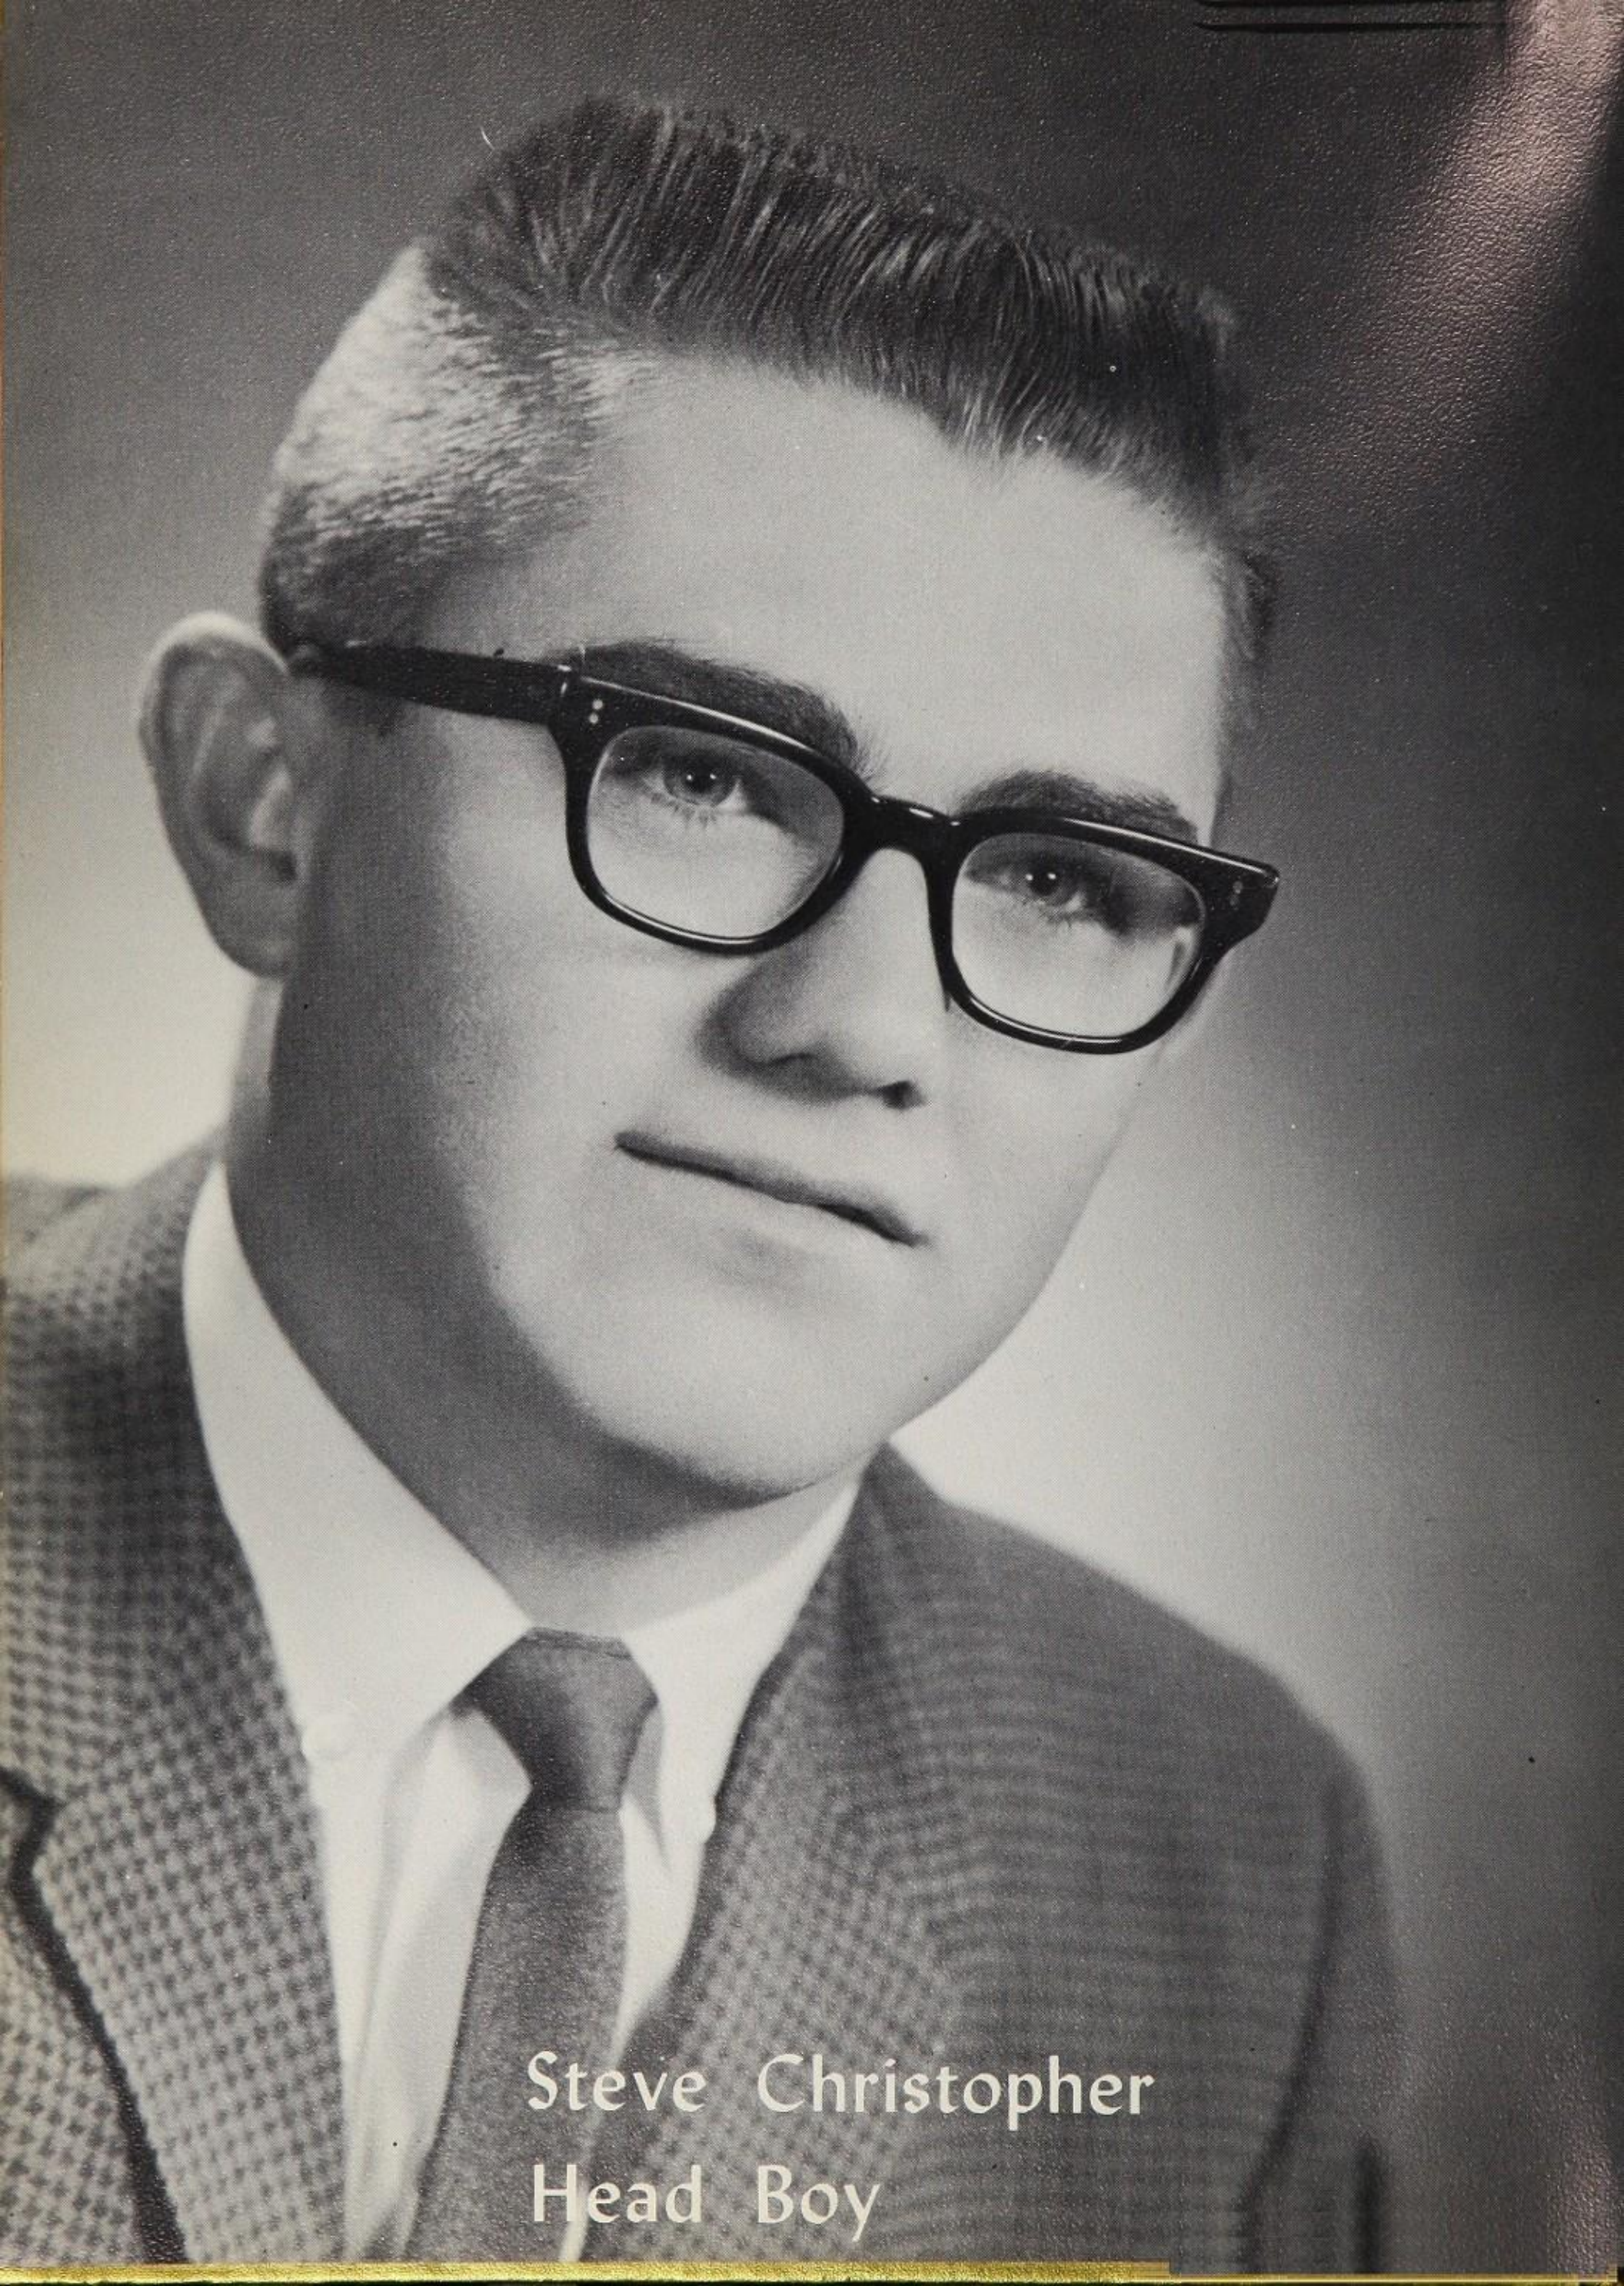

Wisdom of mind, strength of body . . . these are the goals of education at B.H.S. Students are traditionally reminded of these, their goals, by the two statues over the front entrance of B.H.S. - Minnie, symbolizing wisdom and Jake, symbolizing strength. Because Minnie and Jake are traditionally Boulder High's own and because they embody the spirit of Boulder High School, we of the Odaroloc Staff have chosen them as the theme for this, your yearbook of 1962-63.

Leaders

We will always remember the fun we had as we gained in knowledge and experience, but even more will we remember the perseverance, work, and responsibility required of us to attain and retain our position of leadership.

Seniors

The last year -

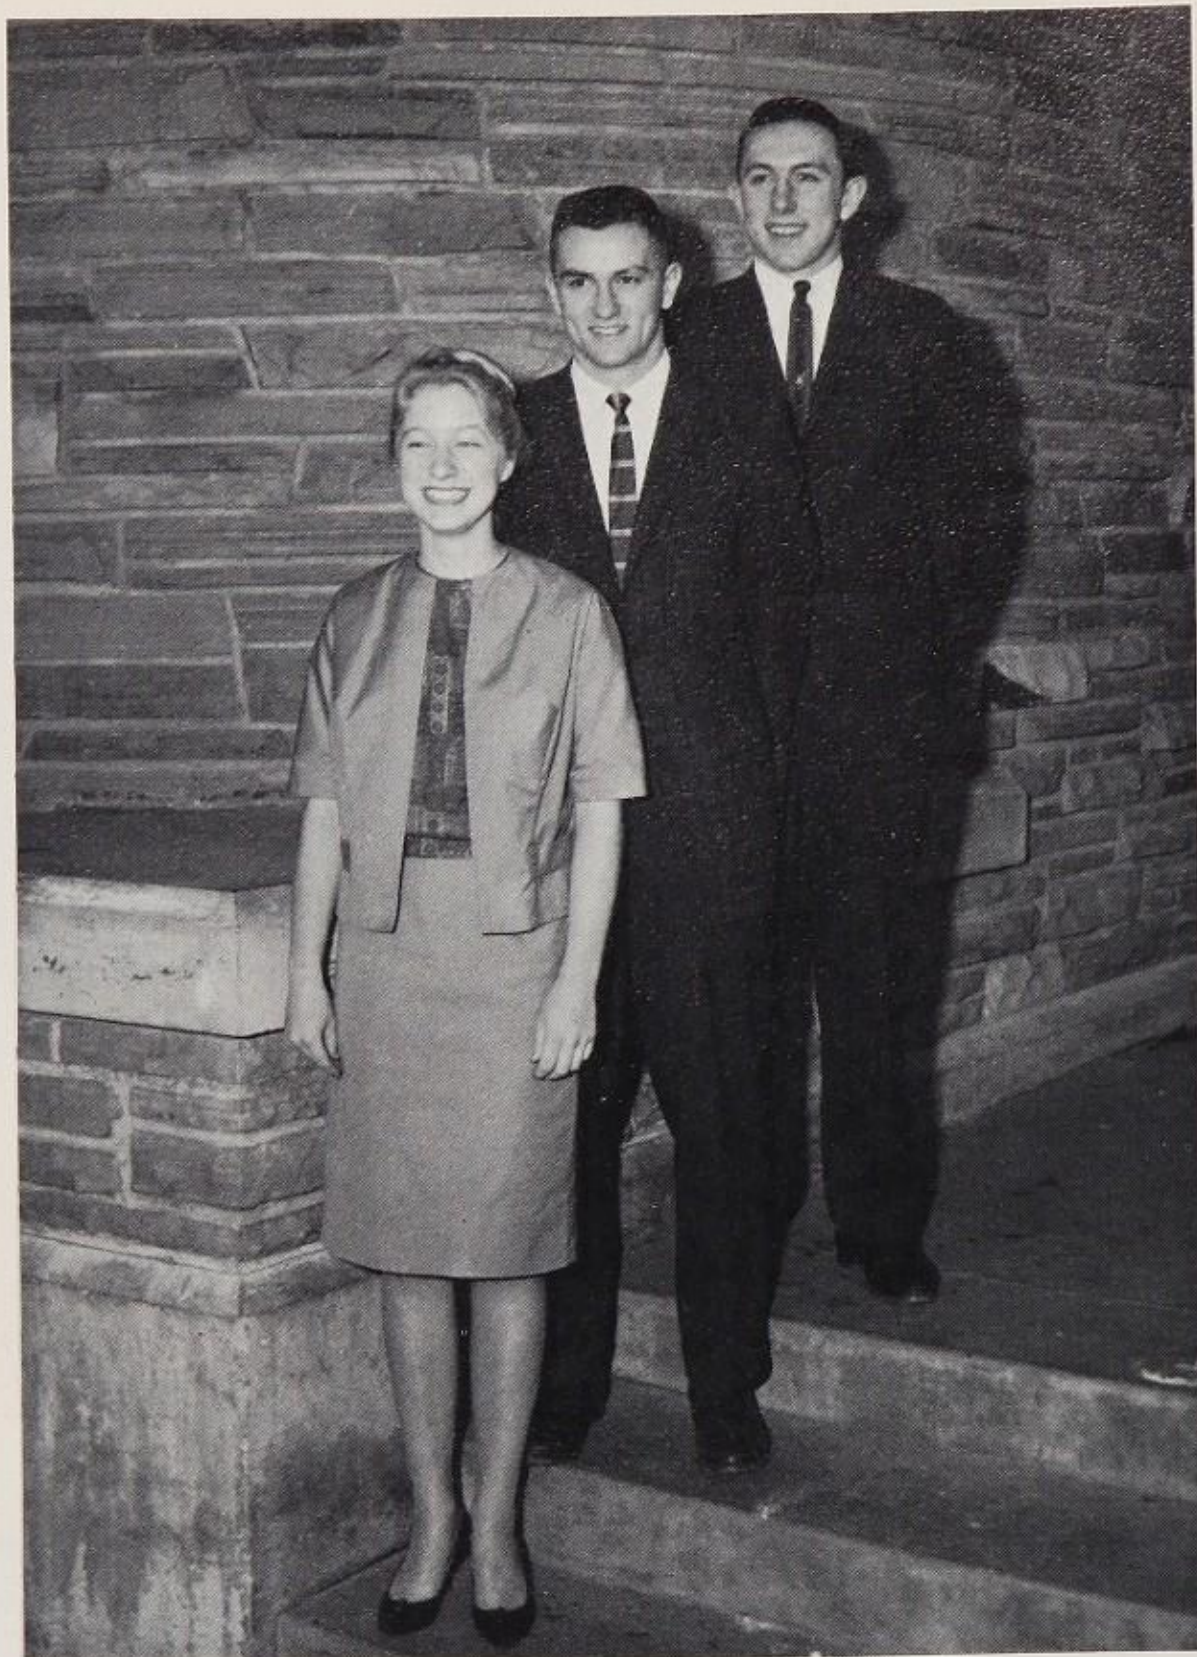

Old friends parted, familiar places departed -

Eager to be alone, yet reluctant to leave home -

Memories of the past, hopes for the future -

These are the thoughts of every senior.

Senior Class Officers

Nancy Nelson, president; Gary Lydin, vice president; Hale Irwin, secretary-treasurer.

The Class of '63' has set high standards in school spirit and scholastic and athletic achievement. The Seniors began their year by planning and giving the annual Senior Fry. Next, the Senior Class planned the St. Nick's Day assembly and the annual alumni tea. The Seniors also planned and participated in the Junior-Senior Prom. The year was climaxed by Senior Week, the Senior Breakfast, Class Day exercises and finally . . . graduation.

The Seniors give credit and a sincere vote of thanks to their class officers and class sponsors, Mr. Patten, Mr. Sheely, Mr. Blubaugh, Mr. Gilbert, Mr. Bostrom, Mr. Hamilton, Mrs. Jones, Miss Oliver, Miss Willis, Mr. Swinscoe, Mrs. Hoffman, for helping to make this a successful and enjoyable senior year.

Underclassmen

For us,
High school is a new experience.
We study;
We experiment
We examine . . .
We learn.

Junior Class Officers

Susan Macy, treasurer; Becky Parker, representative; Greg Jacobson, representative; Bob Putney, vice-president; Bruce Cowgill, president.

The Junior Class had a successful year under the leadership of the Trip Council and their class sponsors, Mr. Bice, Mr. Shaw, Mrs. Theis, Miss Williams, Mrs. Schmidt, Mr. Pagano. They started the year by presenting the Sophomores with the school colors. At Christmas time, the Juniors were responsible for the decorating of the dazzling Christmas tree in the main hall. Their other activities included planning the Junior-Senior Prom, ushering at Class Day and graduation, and giving the annual Senior Breakfast for the graduating Seniors. The Junior Class is characteristically the "middle-man" in Boulder High School. They grant the Onies their privileges and help the Seniors with graduation. They are to be commended for an especially fine job this year of strengthening relationships between the classes of Boulder High School.

Sophomore classes always bring with them new ideas and new spirit. The Class of '65 is no exception. They were initiated into the school routine by the traditional ceremony of bowing to Minnie and Jake. The Junior class then presented them with the school colors. At the beginning of the year, sophomore class officers selected and ordered class rings. The sophomore class owes thanks to the sophomore class officers and class sponsors, Mr. Graf, Miss Harrower, and Mr. Rosan, for the success of their first year at Boulder High School.

Minnie, Jake Welcome New Students

September 4, 1962

Empty lockers, shining floors await the arrival of B.H.S. students on the first day of school.

Juniors, Seniors, and faculty delightfully view the traditional bowing ceremony of Onies and new students . . . "Allah Minnie! Allah Jake!"

Bruce Cowgill, Junior Class President, is presenting Sophomore class officer, Mike Baker, with the school colors after the bowing ceremonies as Mr. Recht "officiates."

Homecoming

Several hundred BHS students display their terrific enthusiasm at the bonfire and rally Thursday night. .

During half-time ceremonies Head Boy Steve Christopher presents Charolotte with a huge spray of yellow mums. Her escort Tom Coleman is obviously proud of his queen.

The dance is always fun, but decorating runs a close second.

Chuck Crist tries to control his spirited MG so that Charlotte won't fall off during the parade.

Activities

Homecoming is the time when a school unites and welcomes home the alums. This year's homecoming festivities began with the traditional bonfire where the students, led by the cheerleaders, showed strong school and team spirit for the following night's game with Fort Morgan.

Friday night arrived, and the Panthers were ready. By halftime Boulder led Morgan 34-0. Halftime activities featured entertainment by the B.H.S. band and twirlers and the presentation of the Homecoming queen candidates and their escorts. Tension mounted; then Charlotte Caldwell was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1962 as the B.H.S. band, in a star formation with the Marching Cubs, played "Stairway to the Stars." The queen's attendants and their escorts were: Mary Beebe and Bob Sopka, Mary Brees and Doug Dugan, Linda Ostrander and Kent Douglass, Melodee Penner and Mike Shortell, Gail Walker and Dave Hahn, Jane Wingfield and Jon Alverson. Halftime ended, and the Panthers charged onto the field to sear Morgan 61-0.

Homecoming queen candidates and their escorts at half-time.

October 11-13, 1962

On the evening of October 12 Queen Charlotte Caldwell and her attendants reigned over the Homecoming Dance, "Moonlight Harvest," as the students and graduates of Boulder High danced to the music of "The Invaders." A throne shaped like a large orange pumpkin, walls decorated like cornfields, a large crescent moon, straw bales, and scarecrows--all made a colorful and exciting climax to Homecoming, 1962.

Doris Dunkleburger and her date Ronnie Greer are served apple cider at the dance. Steve Maxwell is dressed as a scarecrow in keeping with the Homecoming theme.

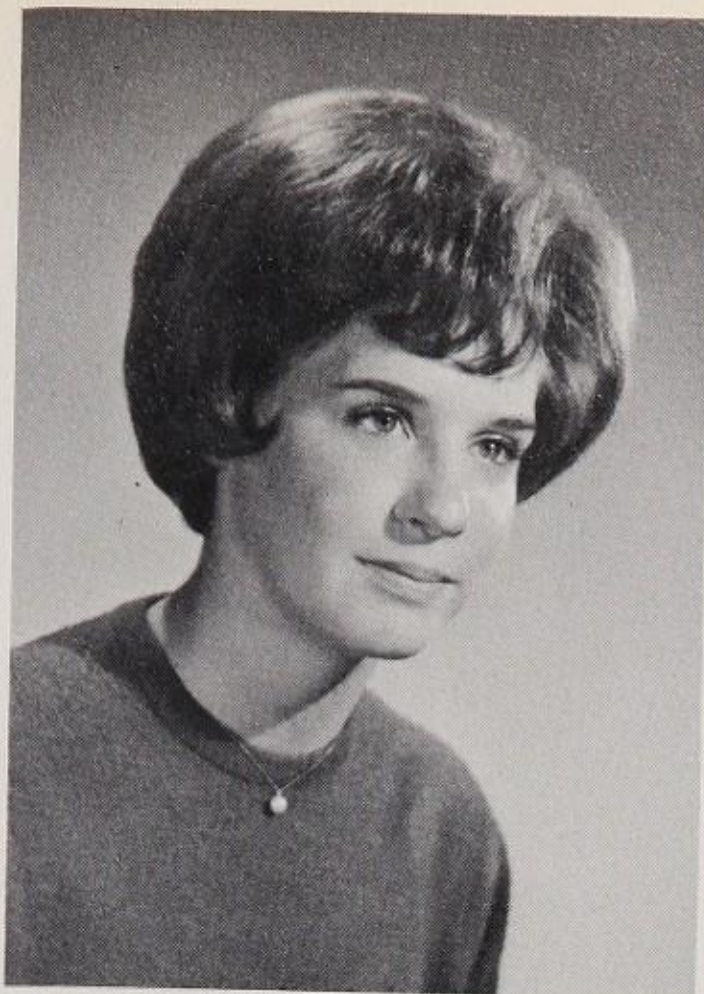

Bales of hay, pumpkins, corn stalks...all create the mood at Moonlight Harvest. This life-sized scarecrow intrigues Chuck Cowan and his date Lynn Kerekes.

Linda Ostrander
Miss Merry Christmas

Mayor Holloway, Linda, and Chamber of Commerce President Don Beeson light the Christmas tree bonfire at the Annual Twelfth Night Celebration.

"Where's Rudolph? Do you really live at the North Pole? - - I want a train!" These were only a few of the comments that Linda heard during her reign as Miss Merry Christmas 1962."

Linda was nominated and elected by the student body of Boulder High School. Her duties commenced at the Court House when she was presented as Miss Merry Christmas and was visited by many eager little boys and girls. She also officiated over the Twelfth Night Celebration and helped Mayor Holloway light the mound of Christmas trees. Her "wildest" experience was a ride on the fire truck which was, she explained, "much fun but-oh--so cold!"

The highlight of Linda's reign was her presentation to the B. H. S. student body during the annual St. Nick's Day Assembly as Miss Merry Christmas of 1962.

St. Nick's Day Features Peace Pageant December 2, 1962

Reverend William Byrd, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Boulder spoke on the theme "Pageant for Peace" at the St. Nick's Day program.

Traditionally, St. Nick's Day at Boulder High is the day before Christmas vacation. The choir presentation, the speaker, the introduction of Miss Merry Christmas, and the alumni tea are enjoyed by all.

The costumes of foreign lands help to show the importance of world understanding.

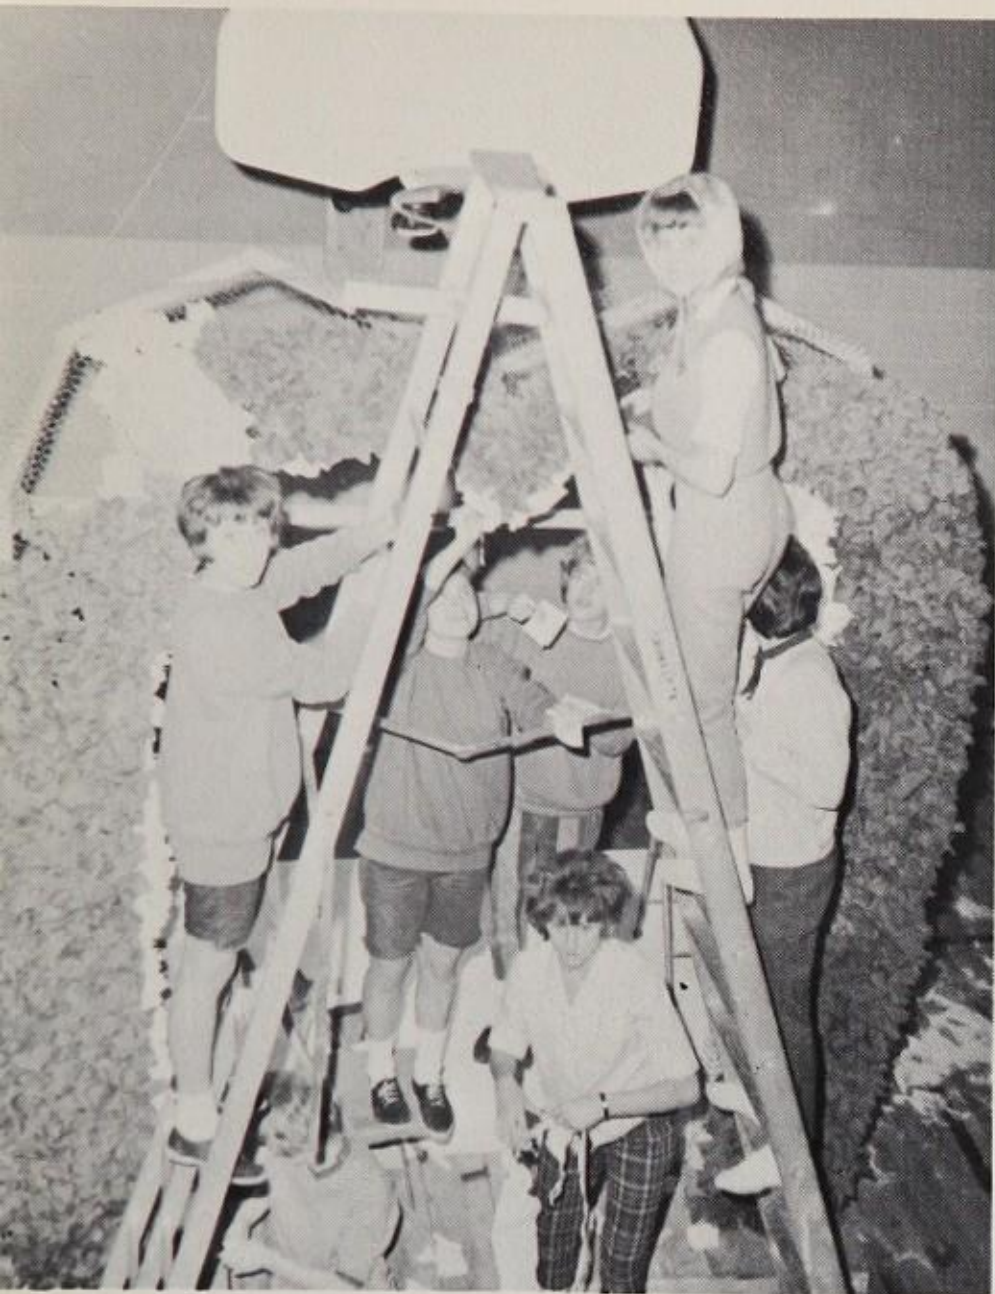

Last year's Miss Merry Christmas, Stephanie Safford, presented Santa Claus and Linda Ostrander, Miss Merry Christmas for 1963, to the student body on St. Nick's Day.

The choir, with its rendition of "Jingle Bells Travelogue" carried out the Theme - Pageant for Peace.

Bush Crowned "King of Hearts" February 2, 1963

Cubs pitch in to build the throne for the "King of Hearts."

Cub president D. D. Draper crowns Bob Bush "King of Hearts," for 1963. Bob's date, Cheryl Henning, and Kaye Deitemeyer await the Sweetheart kiss.

D. D. presents Bob with the annual sweetheart trophy.

"King of Hearts" was the theme for the annual Cub Dance held this year on the evening of February 2, 1963. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Bob Bush as King of Hearts by D.D. Draper, Cub President.

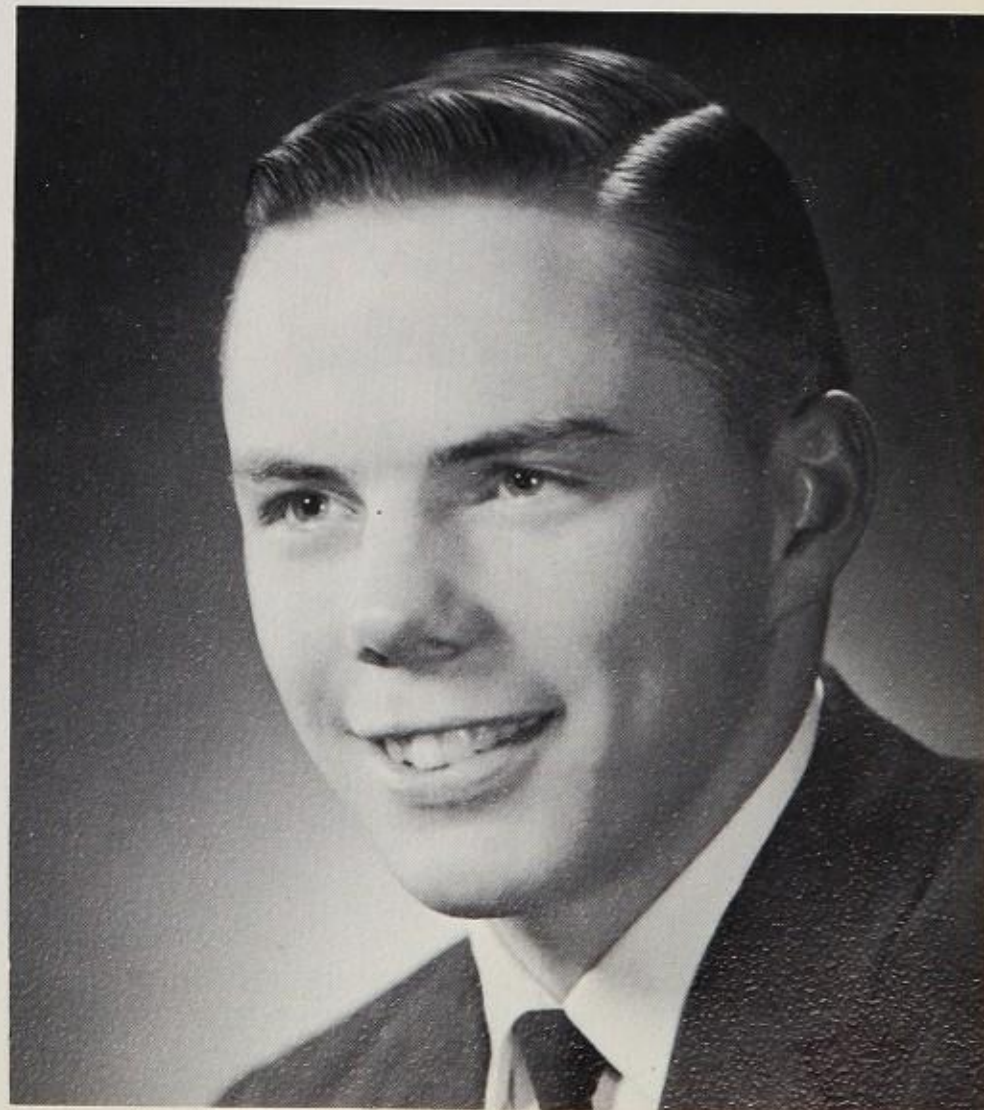

Decorations of hearts and valentines, red punch, and white cake added to the magic of the night as the dancers twirled to the music of the Neill Strand Combo. Bob and his attendants reigned o'er the dance from a large, red, heart-shaped throne. Everyone had a good time at a truly kingly affair.

Stage 'Red Mill'

February 14, 1963

The cast for the musical, THE RED MILL, by Victor Herbert was headed by Dave Tally (Con Kidder) and Terry O'Donnell (Kid Conner), two Americans doing Europe. Scott Stocker (the Burgo-master) is the father of Gretchen (played by Jeanette Kolterman) who is in love with Captain Hendrick Van Damm (played by Gerald Otte). Although she was betrothed to marry the Governor of Zeeland (Bruce Monroe). When Gretchen disappears from the haunted Red Mill her father calls on Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson - Tally and O'Donnell - to assist in a search which forms the background for this intriguing love story.

Stage crew builds the Red Mill.

Owlies' 27th Vodvil

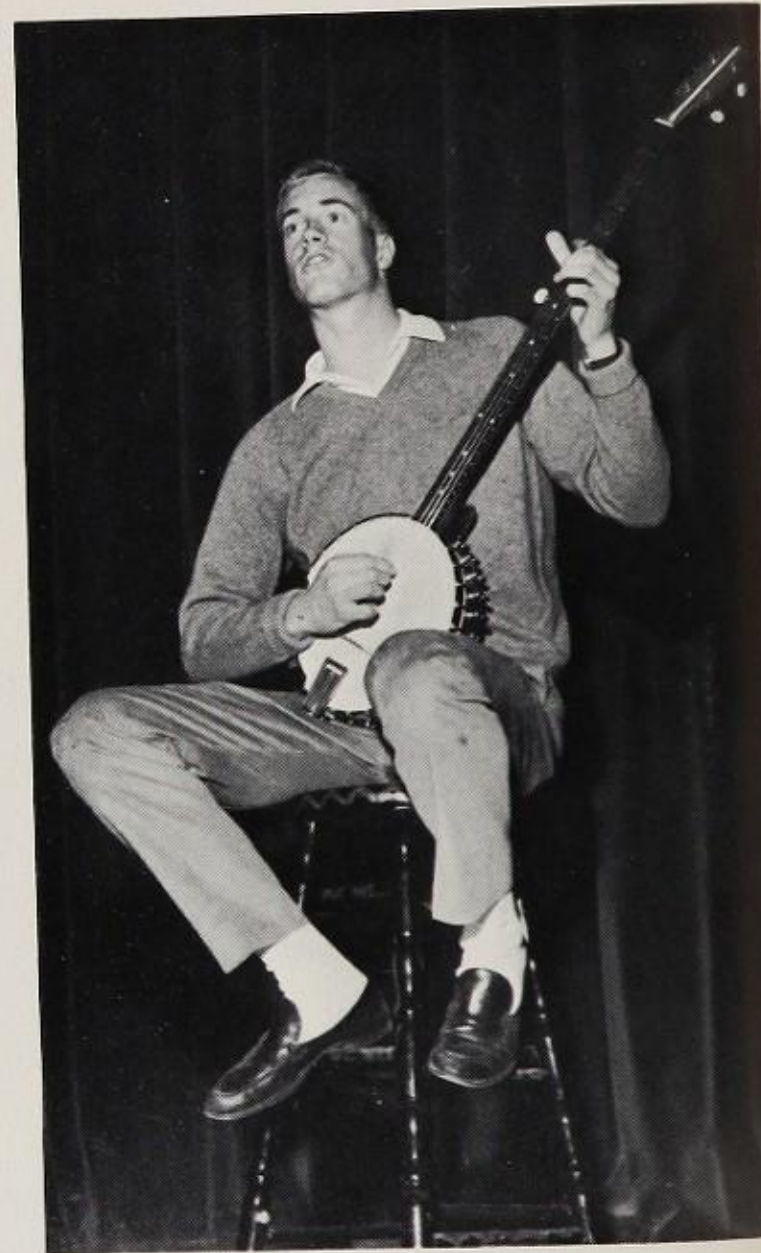

Kathy Hockett and Louise Ogata, the Odori girls, gracefully glide through the motions to "Tea Picking Song" and "glide" onto First place in the entertainment division.

M.C.s, Wade Rutt and Mike Shortell, the hits of the show, examine Mike's "Bunions and Corns" as they introduce the fifteen acts wound around a central theme, the latest fad, a 500 mile hike.

Vodvil is the annual talent show produced and sponsored by the Owl Staff. Entrants for this competition were chosen by the staff members and sponsor. On the evening of March 21, the finalists gave a professional performance to a capacity crowd in the B.H.S. auditorium.

Bruce Munroe "Picks and Sings" his way to a First place in the talent division.

Girls' and Boys' Staters

Mac Goldsberry, Bob Sopka, Doug Dugan, Dave Stevenson, Linda Ostrander, Marty Grisham.

Girls' State

Linda Ostrander was Boulder High's only representative to Girls' State which was held at Colorado Women's College in Denver from June 11-17, 1962. Upon arrival Linda was assigned to Woodpecker Flats, one of six mythical cities, and to the "Federalist Party," one of the two national political parties.

The purpose of Girls' State is to learn, by simulated experience, the mechanics of our city, county, and state government. Linda participated in mock sessions of Congress and toured the state capitol. Elections for representatives were held and Linda was elected to the Board of Regents on the state level.

Linda and four other girls from Boulder were selected by the American Legion Auxiliary after writing a letter, "Why I Would Like to Attend Girls' State" and after giving a speech. These girls were selected for their outstanding qualities in poise, personality, appearance, and content of speech. Nancy Nelson and Joan Langer were alternates for Girls' State from Boulder High.

Boys' State

Boys' State was held from June 15 to June 23 at the University of Colorado. Boulder High had eleven delegates who were assigned to ten cities and one of two national political parties upon arrival at the campus. There the boys attended classes, and participated in city, county, and state elections, thus learning about the mechanics of our government. Several of the boys held office at the city level and Mac Goldsberry was elected County Commissioner and ran in the primaries for Lt. Governor. The highlight of the week was the visit to the Capital in Denver where the boys "ran" the Senate and House introducing, discussing, and passing various bills. These boys were first recommended by their history teachers and then had to give an impromptu speech to the men of the American Legion who then chose the eleven delegates.

"It's so much easier is you use a key . . ." "Andy," the custodial "angel" lets a "locked out" Odaroloc Staff into their room as he has done on many late nights and long weekends.

"Now here's the way it should be done . . ." Senior editor Dawn Pyle gives the orders and the crew falls in line.

Odarolocers pause to hastily map out their new picture and check off those already taken.

Boulder, Colorado, June, 1963

Special Edition to the ODAROLC

Staff Continues Traditions of Merit, Provides Owls to over 1000 Pupils

Mrs. Joanne Arnold
Advisor

Under the leadership and guidance of adviser Mrs. Joanne Arnold, the Owl upheld its tradition of excellence during the 1962-63 school year.

Students bought subscriptions to the Owl for the second year. Over 1000 papers were distributed weekly to subscribers.

CPA Again Rates Owl Third Place

For the third year the Owl placed third in the third annual Colorado Press association contest. Marg McGuire, editor-in-chief, accepted the certificate at the association's awards luncheon in Denver.

Editors Change Every Quarter

Marg was editor-in-chief for the entire year, but subordinate editorships changed each quarter. Serving as assistant editors were Bev Wellborn, Dawn Pyle, Linda Holubar and Mac Goldsberry.

News editors were Kent Douglass, Barb Engel, Kaye Deitemeyer and Marilyn Grotzky. Features were edited by Dawn, Linda, Goldsberry and Merry Nord.

Sports editors were Louis Bragaw, Dick McPhetres, Bob Sopka and Doug Dugan. Linda Marbry was permanent advertising manager Jon Alverson was a senior reporter.

Under the direction of Mr. William Seguine the Boulder High orchestra had a very active year. The annual orchestra contest in which B.H.S. always participates was held in Greeley on April 20. The orchestra also presented an assembly on May 8 and a May 9 concert.

Fourteen students represented B.H.S. in the eighth annual Colorado All State High School Symphony Orchestra. Dr. Andor Toth was the guest conductor for the more than one hundred high school musicians from all over the state during their weekend stay at Colorado University from February 8 through the 10.

Boulder High School SYMPHONIC BAND

Symphonic Band

Boulder High boasted an excellent and active band this year. The members participated in the annual band and orchestra contest on April 20, the All State band, and two members, Chelle Brunk and John Limon, were chosen to represent B.H.S. in the United States High School Band. The bands' winter Concert, held on March 14, featured Branwell Smith, coronet soloist.

Four members of the Boulder High band represented B. H. S. in the annual All State High School Band. The 1963 band, consisting of over a hundred selected musicians from all the high schools in the state, was directed by the Director of Bands at U.C.L.A., Clarence Sawhill, at Colorado State College in Greeley from March 22-23.

This year's grid squad finished the fall season with a 9-1 record during Emerson Wilson's initial coaching year. The Panthers grabbed second place in the Northern Conference standings and were rated fourth in the state.

Quarterback Hale Irwin and center Bob Bush were selected by their teammates as honorary captains at the close of the season. Irwin led all backs in the state in yardage gained and passing yardage, while Bush was credited with blocking the Fort Collins extra point attempt, giving the Panthers a 14-13 crucial victory. The Panthers outscored their opposition 273-99.

Cross-Country

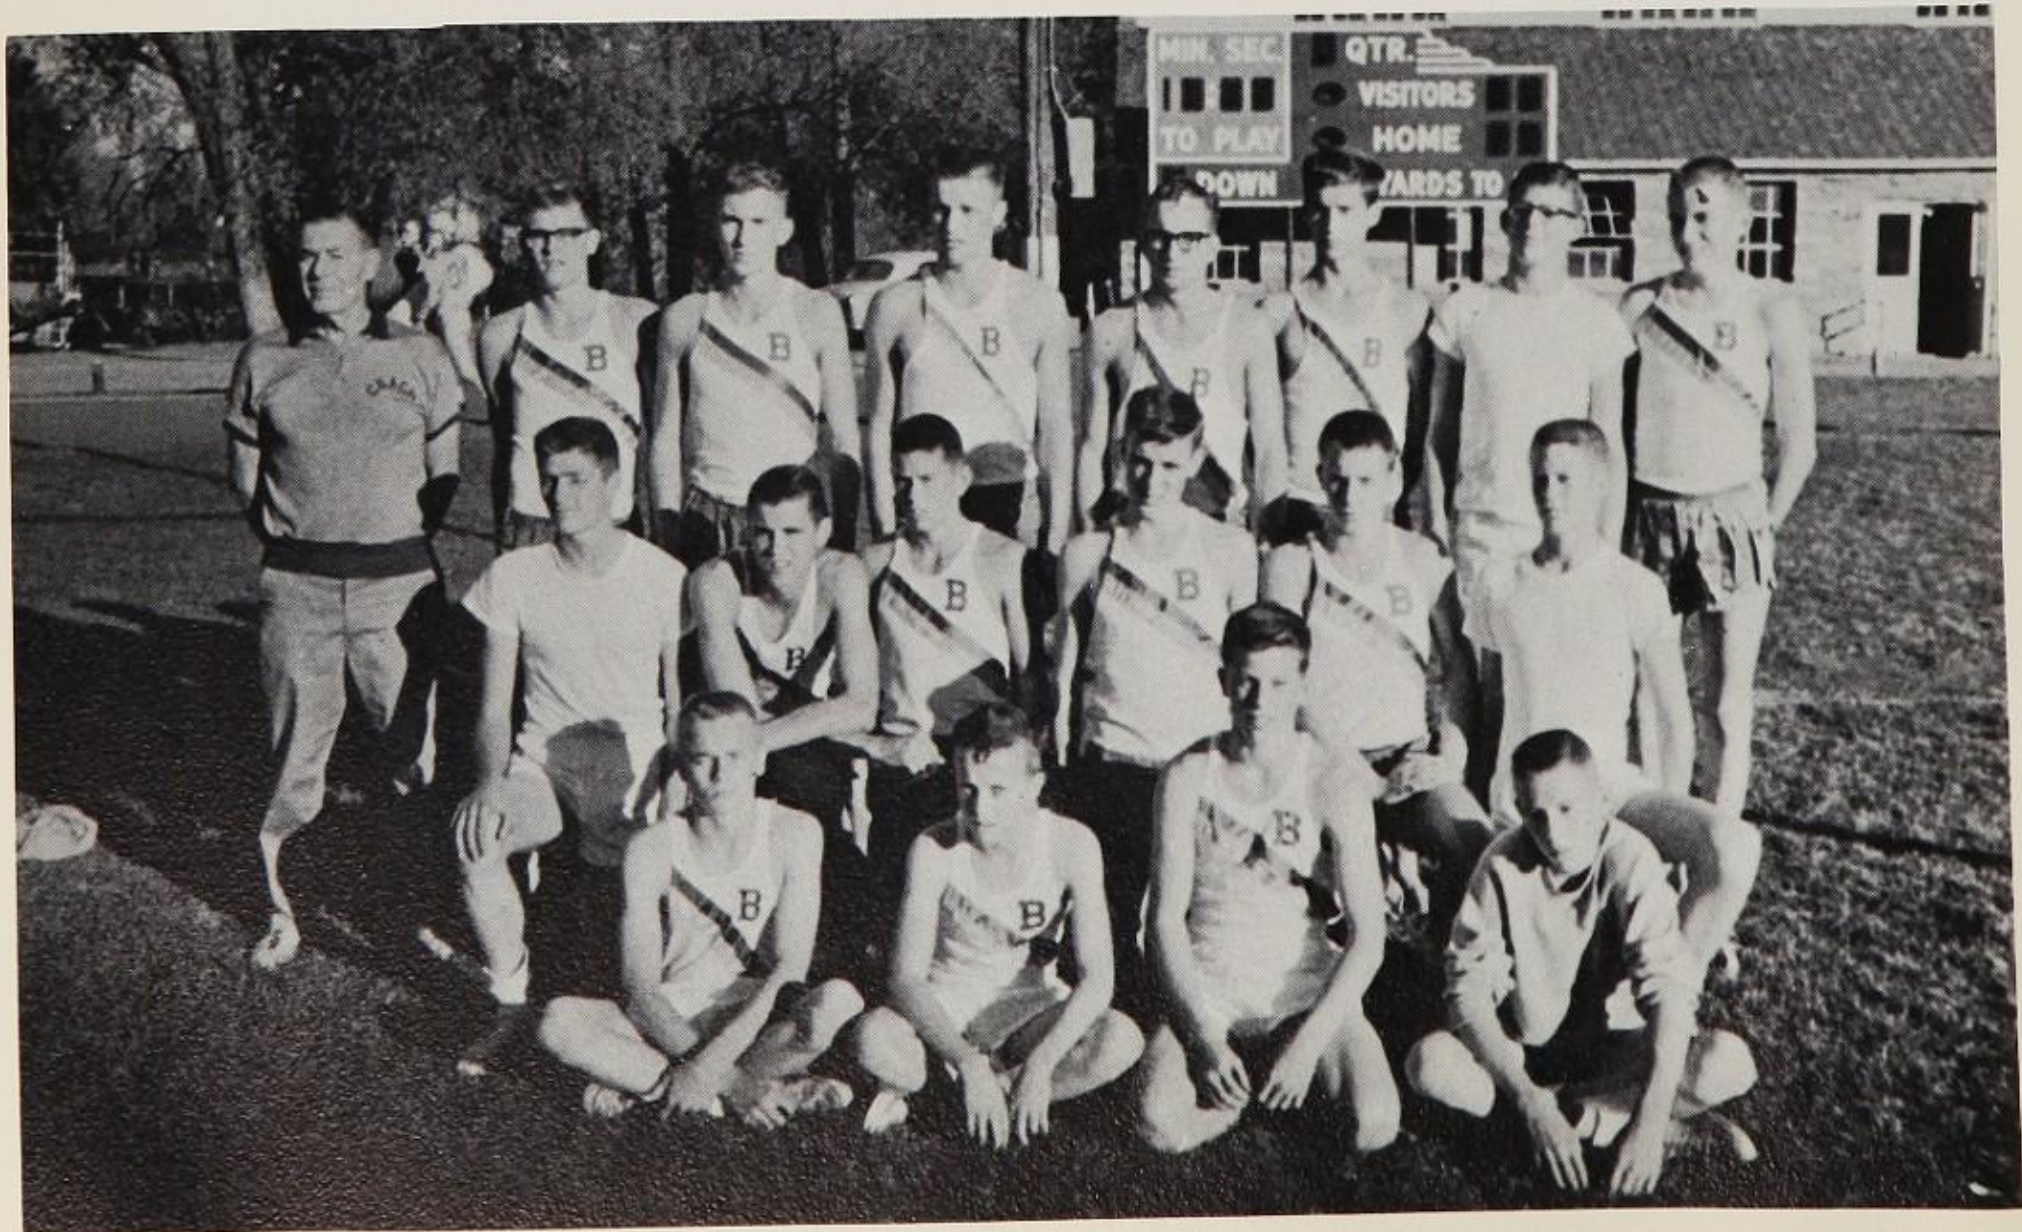

Boulder had its usual fine season this year, placing eighth in the state meet and finishing fifth in the Northern Conference. Senior Marty Grisham was first man the entire season, with senior Mike Ott and junior Blaine Lam the other regulars. Cross country is a mile and a half run over a rough and hilly course. To train for the grueling contest, the Panther athletes ran an average of sixteen miles a week, broken down into roadwork, overtakes (jogging and sprinting), half-miles, quarter-miles, and a trial each week to determine the team.

Panther netters finished fourth in the Northern Conference, defeating Sterling, Fort Morgan, Longmont, and Greeley and losing to Englewood, Aurora, and Fort Collins. Four netmen qualified for state competition at the close of the season: first and second singles men Bill Gullette and Jim Waters and the Dave Curtis--Evan Metcalf doubles team. Boulder finished tenth in state on the strength of the first round win of the doubles team. Cagers Thrill Crowds; Best Season in 14 Years

"Don't fence us in!" is the motto of these senior girls. Barb Engel, Charlotte Caldwell, Sue Cahlander, Julie Richardson, and Jill Martin during a lull in a basketball game.

Court shenanigans from forwards Duke Prentup and Dick Anderson and guard Tom Coleman coupled with the bench action of coach Ken Furman and his talent-laden cage squad provided Panther fans with a season of excitement. The steady play of seniors John Miller, Gary Lydin and Hale Irwin also kept the squad in the running for a state tourney berth and the spectator interest high as Boulder students followed the roundballers in droves to both home and away contests.

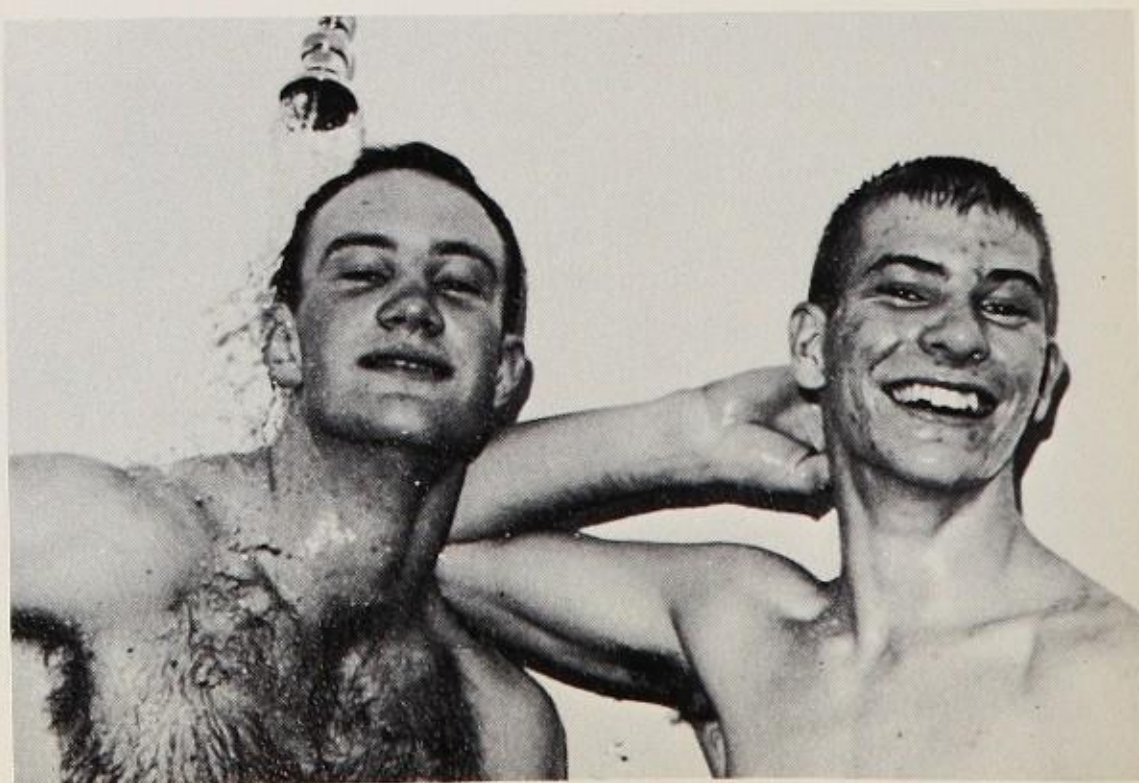

The best season record in 14 years was the outcome of Furman's initial year. Utilizing 10 returning lettermen, the squad compiled a 14-4 overall record and a 12-4 tally in conference competition. The basketball squad found themselves trailing Aurora's Trojans all season and finished one game behind the leaders, just out of state basketball competition. Among the conference conquests were two victories over Greeley, a feat not accomplished by the Panthers in well over a decade.

Anderson, voted the team's most valuable player, sparked the squad by sinking the ball for 240 points and rebounding 172 times.

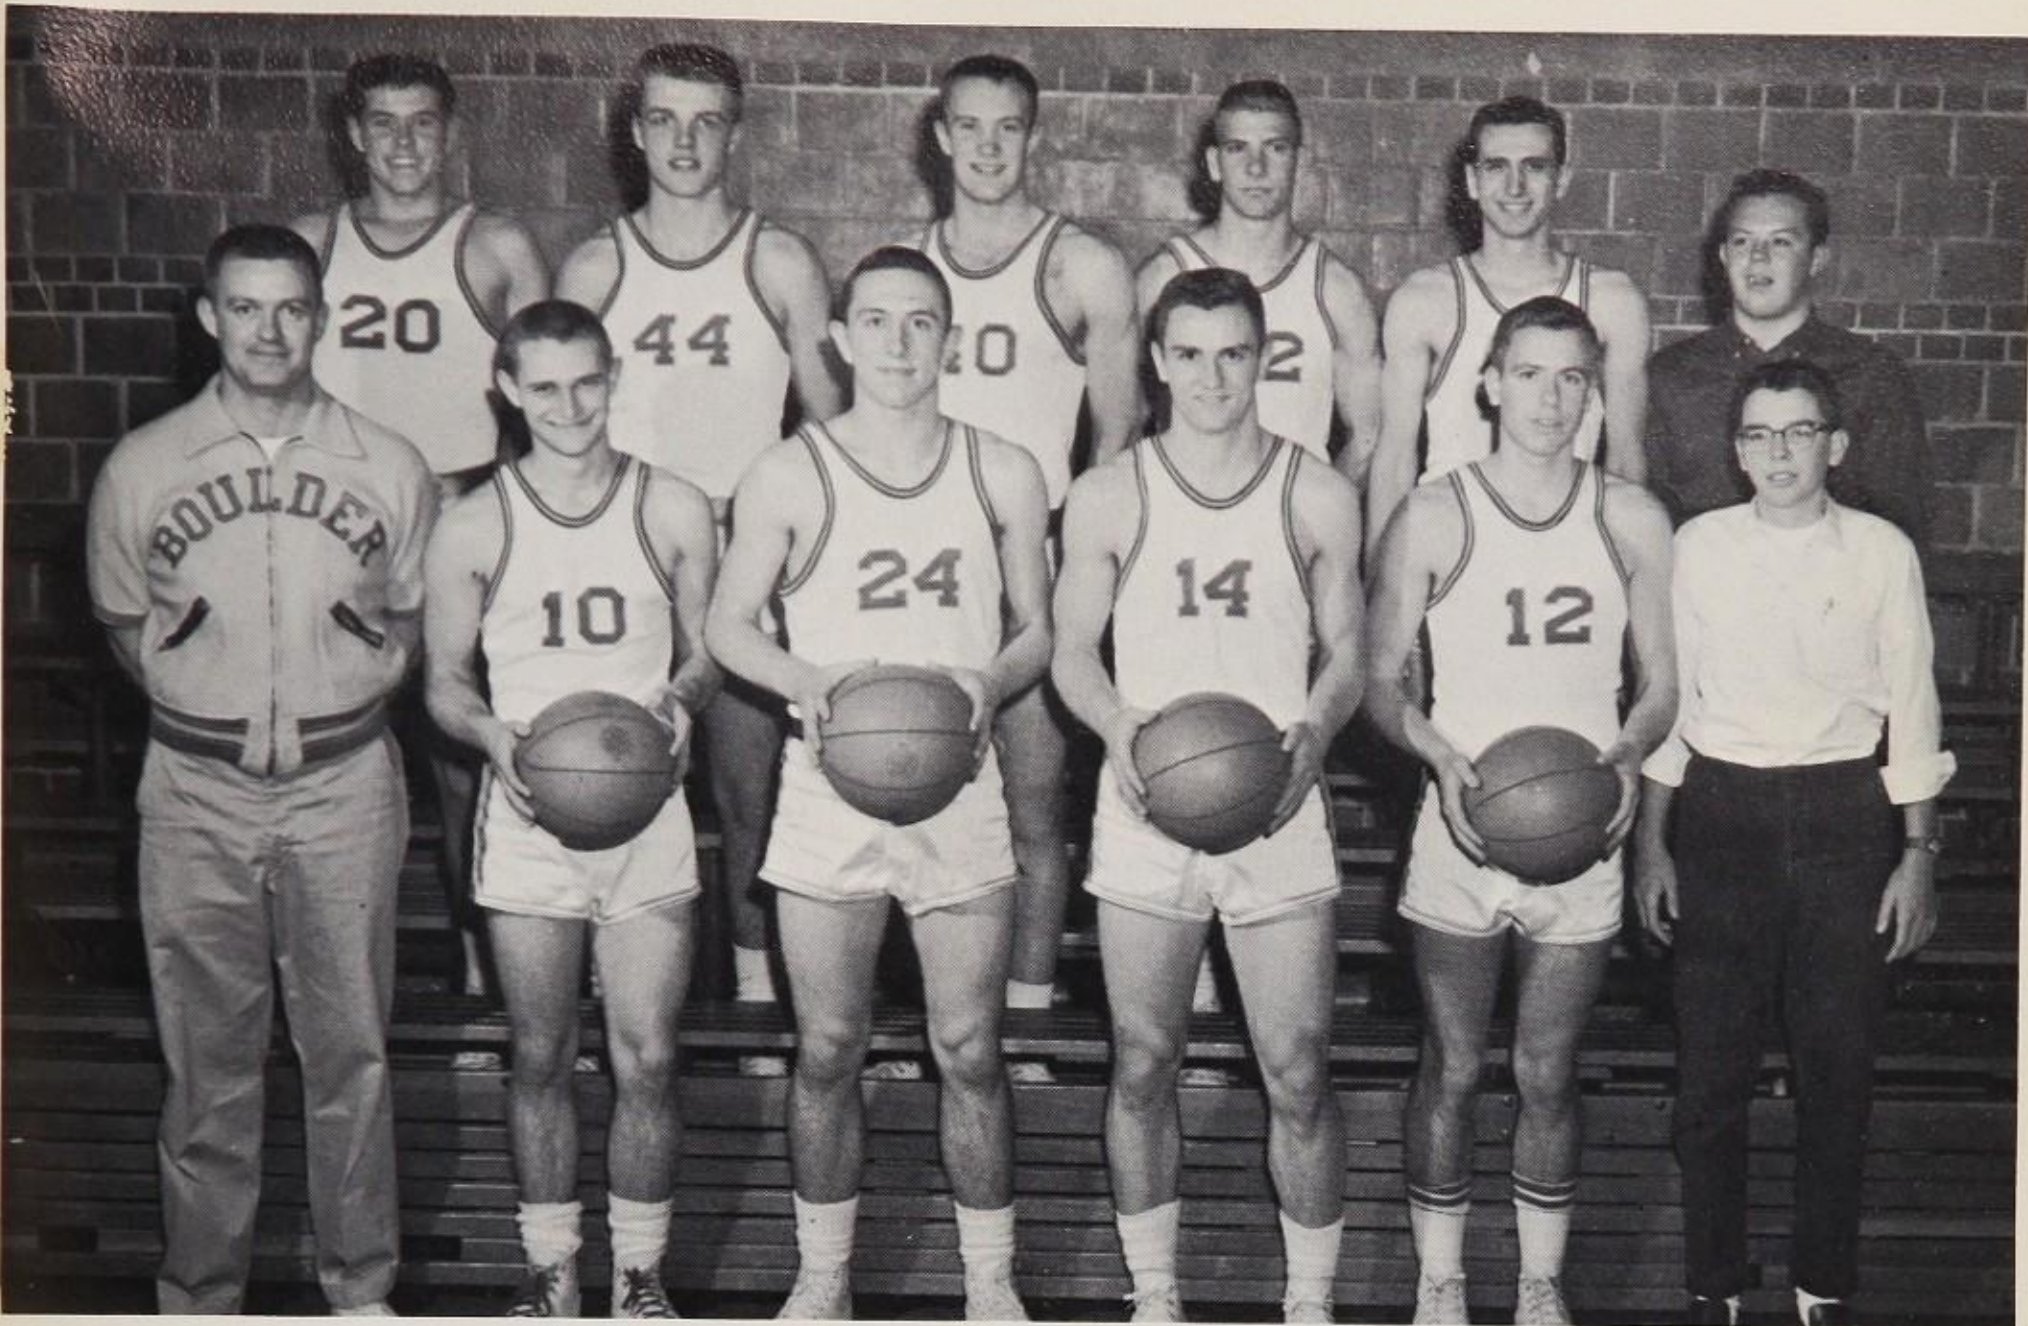

Miller strives to gain control of the ball in the first Englewood game.

Come on in--the water's fine!

Ken Furman New BHS Basketball Coach

Penetrating offense and stubborn defense characterized the style of basketball introduced by Ken Furman during his initial season as Boulder High's head basketball coach. Coming to Boulder from Cheyenne, Wyoming, the enthusiastic new mentor found a host of experienced cage talent from which to mold a strong Panther contender. Consequently, his squad was composed predominantly of seniors.

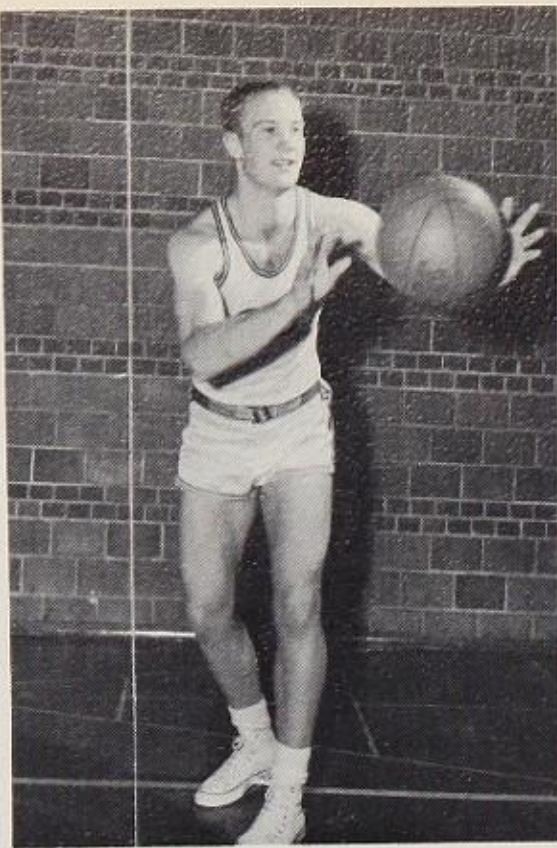

Furman served previously as assistant basketball coach at Central High School in Cheyenne. Before moving to Wyoming he attended Denver University and directed the freshman cagers there prior to entering high school coaching.

Furman raises his arms in an enthusiastic sign of approval.

Coach Allen Patten's 1962-63 grappling squad closed out the season with a ninth place finish in the state meet.

Senior defending state champ Bruce McDowell repeated his domination of the 154 pound class in wrapping up his second crown. Sophomore 95 pounder Gil Espinoza placed fourth in the lightweight division to round out Boulder's point total of 20.

In the regular conference schedule, the Panthers took a third place in the league, being beaten only by Fort Collins, Loveland, and Greeley. McDowell and Junior Dell Rhodes took first in their respective divisions in the Northern League meet at Loveland. Espinoza took second behind state champ Mike Rogers of Greeley.

In pre-season action the Panthers garnered victories over Manuel, George Washington, South, and Lakewood while falling to perennial western slope powerhouses Montrose and Fruita.

Tracksters Start With Strong Team

The Panther track squad went into action this year again rated as a title contender in the Northern League.

Coach Ed Swincoe's thinclads boasted two returning conference champs and one state winner. Senior Jerry Scofield and junior Warren Gillette were defending their league crowns in the high jump and 440 respectively, and senior Duke Prentup took the state title in the 180-yard low hurdles.

Good depth was shown in the mile as Boulder again fielded a strong mile team in the Aurora Relays. Last year's quartet won top honors and set a new record with a low score of 22.

The Panthers' other strong points were the sprints, middle distances, and hurdles.

Baseball

Baseballers Face Tough Schedule

Slugger McDowell.

Coach Phil Cohen's diamond crew, bolstered by nine returning lettermen, faced one of the toughest schedules in the school's history. Defending state champion Grand Junction, runner-up Wasson of Colorado Springs, consolation winner Arvada and fourth place Greeley all appeared on the slate, as did two other defending league champions, Westminster and Colorado Springs' Cheyenne Mountain. The Panther nine stayed in strong contention behind the slugging of seniors Gary Lydin, Bruce McDowell, and Mike Deisher. McDowell pleased the fans and harassed the opposition with his fleet base running and unpredictable steals. Pitching appeared to be the only major weakness in the early season as Deisher was the single regular hurler to return. However, the mound crew could count on one of the best batterymates in the state with junior Gary Moschetti holding down the duties behind the plate.

Diamond athletes appearing for their last time during the spring sport session included outfielders Doug Dugan, Bill Hafner, Jack Coppom, and McDowell; infielders Joey Wigotow and Lydin; pitcher-outfielder Deisher and pitcher Tom Hopper.

Sam Pagano assisted Cohen with the coaching duties. Cohen said, "Our goal, as always, is the state championship, and our chances look as good this year as they ever have." All observers anticipated improvement from the 9-8 record of a year ago.

Cheerleaders

Varsity cheerleaders give the victory sign in the away Fort Collins Football game with the aid of clowns. Panther fans were surprised and delighted by the appearance of the clowns, boys from Colorado State University led by Gary Wetterberg, 1961 BHS grad. Throughout the tense game these clowns helped the cheerleaders and provided amusing side-line entertainment.

Cheerleaders The Best Yet

The varsity cheerleaders often drew cheers of praise themselves from an appreciative, enthusiastic audience for their outstanding performances. Throughout the year Boulder fans have been proud of the yell leaders who have represented them at interscholastic games, and the oft-repeated phrase among those in the stands was "Our cheerleaders are so much better than theirs." The cheers were so worked out to perfection that the girls really were the best in the conference.

Cathy Beagle, Muff Beagle, Kaye Deitemeyer, Gerry Locke, Sue Tisone and head cheerleader Martha Ward were elected by the student body in May of their junior year. Since then these girls have set a standard of excellence which coming cheerleaders will be hard put to match. We salute and thank the varsity cheerleaders who were so much a part of the last school year.

Yells of spirited cheerleaders and students mixed with the loud beating of drums in the outdoor football rallies will long be remembered as a wonderful, exciting part of high school life.

Cathy, Kaye, Martha, Sue, Gerry, and Muff take a break from practice.

JV Cheerleaders Spark B, C Squads

Head JV cheerleader Marge McKenna described junior varsity cheerleading as being "a heck of a lot more work than we thought it would be, but still lots of fun." The junior varsity yell leaders attended and led cheers at all the B and C squad games, put on school rallies, and helped the varsity cheerleaders in addition to practicing for hours every week. The outcome was a perfectly coordinated cheering team which won the admiration and warm thanks of players, coaches, and spectators alike.

Eindale School

To Someone very dear and Mr.
Kind. Your presents has made this year a pleasant one. Remember this winter and the fun we had trudging through the snow and our little excursions to the Shaw. Remember all the pleasant things there are to remember. May our future be as bright as the past. Don't forget Ray Q. OK, He is a swell person to listen to! How am I doing? You know what I'm trying to say, my ~~feel~~ feelings are still the same as ever. My last words are Evergreen you know what I mean
